(12) All persons appointed by name under Sec 23(2)(c) of the Act to hear an appeal under Sec 24(1)(2) and other persons, who can qualify for the category of Sec 24(2) of the C to Act, can be given such extra duties as are prescribed under the proviso to Sec 24(1)(2), because such a person is also a Municipal Commissioner. In Can exercise "all the powers that may be exercised by a Municipal Commissioner" In fact, [illegible], he should be given the powers of the Deputy Municipal Commissioner also, and as such, there is no necessity to add a like proviso to Sec 24(2) of the Act as suggested by the President, for Sec 24(1)(2) proviso of the C to Act automatically can be made applicable to the President by the Deputy Municipal Commissioner.

Law Secy) 21/1/42

(13) proviso to S 24(1)(2) was necessitated by the restrictions imposed by S 24(1)(2) on a Municipal Commissioner. S 24 only authorises a President to exercise the powers of the Commissioner

D O No MS-33-182/43

29th October 1943

Dear sir,

I have separately sent to you to-day the resolution moved by Mr G Janardan Naidu and carried by the Municipal Council, requesting Government to relieve the President of the Municipal Council of the extra ex-officio functions In this connection, I wish to state that proviso to Sec 241 (2) reads as under -

"Provided that the Government may assign to him any other work of local importance or interest, if in its opinion, he can perform such additional work without prejudice to his duties as Municipal Commissioner "

The Section deals with the duties of the Municipal Commissioner and the above proviso provides for assigning him additional duties The question is whether this provision is applicable to a President appointed by name under Section 23(2)(c) as the functions of such a President are defined in Section 24 of the City Municipalities Act and if you think it does not apply it may perhaps be necessary to add a similar proviso to Section 24

Yours sincerely,

B Raghavendra Rao
